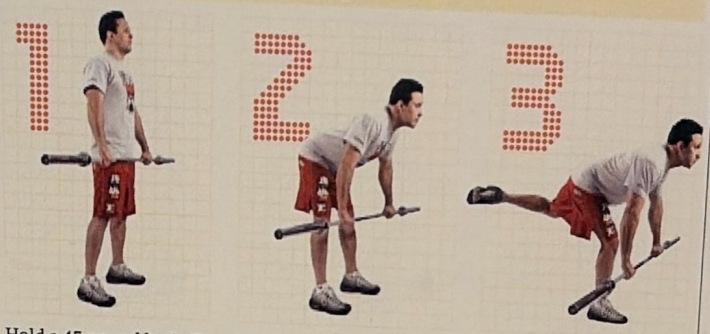
Reverse Split With Barbell three sets of 10 reps

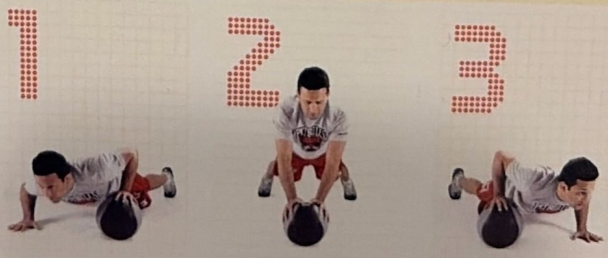


1. Hold a 45-pound barbell at your waist with your back straight and feet shoulder width apart.
2. Bend at the waist as you lower the bar. Roll your shoulders back and keep your arms slightly bent.
3. Leverage the bar as you slowly lift one leg up as high as possible behind you. Grunt accordingly.

Heavy Bag Kick to Knee-drop three sets of 10 reps

1. Stand in a ready stance—fists up, knees bent—about two feet away from a heavy bag.
2. Swing one leg firmly into the bag for a deft lateral kick. Try to imagine the sound of ribs cracking.
3. Step back and bounce forward on your kicking foot, driving your other knee into the bag.

Medicine Ball Push-up three sets of 10 reps



1. Drop into a push-up position and carefully brace one hand on a 15-pound medicine ball.
2. Do a push-up and pop up onto the ball, supporting your trembling frame with both hands.
3. Drop your other hand and do another. Unless you want a broken nose, don't let the ball roll.
